There has been bloody work at Kara.

On Tuesday morning the Russians attacked the line of the Turkish fortifications along its entire length. The battle raged fiercely until Thursday night, when the attacking forces were driven from the field, which was covered with Russian dead. The principal scene of the combat was a few miles east of Kara. The losses aggregate between 6,000 and 7,000, the Grand Duke Nicholas conceding more than 3,000 Russians killed and wounded. The Turks claim that the Russians lost 5,000. A Reuter telegram states that the Russians officially concede a loss of 62,000 up to September 27. It is announced from Bucharest that Russian headquarters in Bulgaria will be removed from Gorney Studen to Sistova.

Mukhtar Pasha, Turkish commander in Asia, telegraphed on Friday that the Russians had abandoned all their positions parallel to the Ottoman lines. The enemy's losses in the three days' fighting are estimated by Mukhtar at 10,000; that of the Turks is given at 2,000. A Vienna special says the massing of the Russian guard in the rear of the Turkish lines at Plevna indicates that the Muscovites are preparing to close the communications of Plevna, and prevent the retreat of Osman Pasha, should it be attempted. A Greek vessel entering the Gulf of Arta with arms and munitions has been seized by the port. Gen. Hagen, U. S. military attaché at Vienna, has arrived at Bucharest, and will go to Bulgaria. There is two feet of snow at Schlipka pass.

A Washington dispatch of the 6th says:

Chief Justice Carter, having last night issued a warrant on the requisition of the governor of South Carolina for the arrest of Senator Patterson, a visit was soon thereafter made to the residence of the senator. His counsel, Shellabarger, Wilson and Charles Pelham knew of his whereabouts and when preliminaries for a petition for writ of habeas corpus were completed the marshal was informed of the locality of the senator whereupon the arrest was made, and immediately counsel applied to Judge Humphreys for a writ of habeas corpus.

Judge Humphreys issued a writ of habeas corpus and the marshal produced Patterson. Richbourg, the agent of South Carolina who brought the requisition, was present.

There were three robberies of stage coaches by brigands out in the territories, last week, the net proceeds of which were $407 only—a light business. The defalcation, forgery and embezzlement operations in the East were, on the contrary, large and profitable. There were the Gilman forgeries in New York, $342,000; the reported defalcation in the city treasury of Hoboken, $80,000; the Lyman and Hogan forgeries in New York, estimated at $100,000; the defalcation in the Pacific mills at Lawrence, Mass., $150,000, and the defalcation in the First National bank at Indianapolis, $150,000—making a total for the week of $687,000. The road agents and train robbers out West are very bad fellows, but they are cheap rascals compared with the sleek respectables who carry on a similar business in the Eastern cities. Republican.

Rochester Democrat: "Please state," said Thomas H. Hendricks in a hoarse whisper to a reporter, immediately on his arrival at New York, "that my health is superb. I feel ten years younger than I did when a boy, and my muscle and appetite are simply enormous." "And how did you leave Mr. Tilden?" said the reporter with considerable interest. "Poor man, poor man!" said Mr. Hendricks, shaking his head. "Mere skin and bone, a hectic flush, a horrid cough, and all sorts of dreadful things. He may live to get home; but he's fading away, fading away."

It is thought that Herschel V. Johnson will be appointed to fill the vacancy on the supreme court bench.
